I. O. O. F.

PREAMBLE.

For the purpose of effecting uniformity in the administration of the privileges, honors and benefits of Odd Fellowship within this jurisdiction, the GRAND LODGE OF THE INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA ordains the following Constitution of Subordinate Lodges under its jurisdiction.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

SECTION 1. This Lodge shall consist of at least five members of the Degree of Truth, including one qualified to preside at its meetings, to be hailed and entitled of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of California, holding a legal charter granted by the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of California. It cannot voluntarily surrender its charter so long as five Third-degree members in good standing object thereto.

PETALUMA LODGE, No. 30

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. Every applicant for initiation must be a free white male of the age of twenty-one years; of sound health; of good moral character and industrious habits, having some known respectable means of support; must believe in the existence of a Supreme Being, the Creator and Preserver of the Universe, and be proposed in the Lodge nearest his residence, except that Lodge grant permission for his joining another Lodge; provided, that application for membership may be made to any Lodge nearest the residence of the applicant in the same county or district. A candidate may be admitted in any Lodge in the city or village in which he resides; but all candidates for initiation must reside in this jurisdiction, except such candidates as may apply from other States or Territories where there is no Grand Lodge or District Deputy Grand Sire located.

SEC. 2. Every applicant for membership by deposit of card, or certificate of dismissal, or as an Ancient Odd Fellow, shall deposit his card or certificate with his proposition, or furnish satisfactory evidence that such card or certificate has been lost.

SEC. 3. No suspended or expelled member of the Order can be admitted to membership in this Lodge except on a dismissal certificate or on being reinstated and receiving a withdrawal card from the Lodge which suspended or expelled him, or from the Grand Secretary, as prescribed by law.

SEC. 4. An Odd Fellow who has been regularly initiated into the Order, and has retained membership therein for at least five consecutive years, and who at the time of making application for reinstatement or membership shall be over fifty years of age, may be admitted to membership in this Lodge as a non-beneficial member upon such terms as the By-Laws may prescribe, by presenting a petition as required under Section 1, Article III, for proposals for membership by initiation, which shall be disposed of according to said section.

SEC. 5. When an application for membership is received from a person residing nearer to another Lodge than the one to which the application is made, the Lodge receiving such application shall communicate the fact to the Lodge nearest the residence of such applicant, and shall inquire whether such person is a fit and proper person to be admitted into our Order, and, if in the same county and district, shall also ask the consent of such Lodge to receive and act upon such application; and it shall take no further action upon such application until an answer is received to such communication. The Lodge receiving such communication shall appoint a committee of three to investigate the character, standing and health of the petitioner, in the same manner as if the application was made directly to such Lodge. Such committee shall report at the next regular meeting of the Lodge, and a certified copy of the report, together with a certified copy of the minutes showing the action of the Lodge, upon the request for consent to receive and act upon the application (if such consent was necessary), shall be forthwith forwarded to the Lodge in which such application is filed, and said last named Lodge may then proceed upon such application as in other cases, except that if it be a case where the consent of the other Lodge is necessary, and that consent be refused, the petitioner's money (if any has been paid) shall be returned, and no further action shall be had in the premises.

ARTICLE III.

PROPOSITIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION I. The name of a person offered for membership, with his age, nativity, residence and occupation must be proposed by a member in writing, signed by the applicant, with the names of two persons as references attached, and entered upon the record, and forthwith be referred to a committee of three members for investigation, who shall report at the next succeeding regular meeting (unless extraordinary circumstances prevent), when the candidate shall be balloted for with ball ballots, and if three or more black balls appear, the candidate shall be declared rejected.

SEC. 2. A brother who has been for twenty-five years a contributing member of a Subordinate Lodge, who may desire to join this Lodge by deposit of card, may make application for admission before severing his connection with this Lodge by sending in his petition setting forth the fact of his having been a member for that length of time, together with such other matter as is usually contained in petitions for membership; whereupon the Lodge shall proceed to consider such application in the usual manner, and in case of the election of such applicant, the Secretary shall immediately notify the Lodge to which the brother belongs, and when the brother's withdrawal card shall have been received by the Secretary of this Lodge, and he has paid the admission fee, he shall be entitled to sign the Constitution, and thereby be received into full membership.

SEC. 3. Should this Lodge receive notification that one of its members has been so elected to membership by another Lodge, this Lodge shall, at the meeting when such notification is received, grant such brother a withdrawal card—if he is clear on the books of the Lodge and free from all charges—upon the payment of the requisite fee, and the Secretary shall immediately forward the card to the Lodge from which the notification of the brother's election to membership comes.

SEC. 4. No reconsideration of an unfavorable ballot can be had unless all the brothers who may cast black balls against an applicant for membership voluntarily make a motion for a reconsideration of the ballot; provided such reconsideration be had within four regular meeting nights next succeeding such rejection; and in such case the vote on the reconsideration shall be taken by ball ballots, and if all the balls cast be in favor of it, the reconsideration shall be had; whereupon the application shall lie over till the succeeding meeting, when another ballot shall be had with ball ballots, and if the same be unanimously in favor of the applicant he shall thereby be elected; but if one or more black balls appear in either ballot, the applicant shall be rejected; and in no case shall a reconsideration be had except upon a voluntary motion of all those who cast black balls; and never more than one motion for a reconsideration in the same case shall be allowed. A favorable balloting can be reconsidered at any meeting prior to the admission of the candidate, provided a majority of the members present agree thereto.

SEC. 5. When a candidate for initiation has been rejected, notice thereof shall be sent, without delay, to the Grand Secretary, and to all the Lodges in the county and district, and he cannot be proposed again in any Lodge for the space of one year after such rejection. All other applications for membership may be renewed at any time.

SEC. 6. No proposition can be withdrawn after being referred to a committee, unless by consent of two-thirds of the members present at a regular meeting, and before the report of the committee has been read to the Lodge.

SEC. 7. If any person shall gain admittance to any Lodge upon a petition containing any false representations, he shall be expelled.

SEC. 8 In case the name of any member of the Order shall at any time appear—upon memorial duly presented by him—not to be his correct name, the Lodge may, upon motion duly made therefor, order such name changed upon the records of the Lodge to his true name ; provided a motion therefor shall be submitted in writing at least two weeks prior to action thereon ; and provided further that two-thirds of the members present at the meeting of the Lodge consent thereto, and the Secretary shall report such action to the Grand Secretary, who shall report the same to all the Lodges in the jurisdiction.

ARTICLE IV.

FEES, DUES AND BENEFITS.

SECTION 1. The fees of this Lodge shall not be less than $10 for initiation; $5 for each degree; $5 for admission by card; $8 for an Ancient Odd Fellow, and $10 by deposit of Dismissal Certificate. The dues of this Lodge shall not be less than fifty cents per month. In addition to the foregoing, the Lodge may provide by its By-Laws for a Widows', Orphans' and Education Fund, and Funeral Tax, and for extraordinary assessments for Lodge purposes.

SEC. 2. Every member qualified as required by the By-Laws shall, in case of being disabled by sickness or bodily accident from earning a livelihood, be entitled to and may receive such weekly benefits as may be fixed by law from the funds of the Lodge, which shall in no case be less than four dollars per week for Third-degree members; but the Lodge may provide in its By-Laws that none but Third-degree members shall be entitled to weekly benefits; also that benefits shall not be allowed for the first week's sickness. Such benefits shall commence six months from the date of admission to membership, provided the brother shall have attained the degree required by the By-Laws; and all brothers, if otherwise qualified, shall be entitled to benefits if not more than thirteen weeks in arrears for dues, assessments or fines. Benefits are rights personal to the member, his family and dependent relatives, and are not payable to the legal representatives of a member's estate.

SEC. 3. In case of the death of a member, irrespective of his standing relative to sick benefits, there shall be allowed from the Lodge a uniform sum of not less than thirty dollars to defray the expenses of the burial, to be paid by the Noble Grand on account of the funeral; provided the brother be buried by the Order or at the expense of the family of the deceased. In the absence of competent relations, the Noble Grand shall take charge of the funeral and render an account of the disbursements. In addition to the above, the Lodge may provide in its By-Laws for a funeral benefit.

SEC. 4. The funeral and sick benefits shall be regulated by the By-Laws of the Lodge, and all orders drawn for the above benefits shall be by vote of the Lodge.

SEC. 5. If a Lodge refuses or neglects to grant sick benefits to a brother, he may, at any time within four weeks thereafter, demand in writing, that the Lodge appoint a committee to investigate the matter, whereupon the Lodge shall appoint a committee of five to hear the evidence and report the facts and their conclusions to the Lodge. Such committee shall, without unnecessary delay, notify the brother of the time and place of their meeting, and investigate the case. They shall keep full minutes of the evidence and of their proceedings, and report the same to the Lodge with their conclusion. If a witness be a member of the Order, he shall give his testimony on the honor of an Odd Fellow; if he be not a member, then on oath or affirmation, and the proceedings must state that such obligation or oath was administered. The obligation may be administered by any member of the committee. No testimony shall be taken without notice or opportunity for cross-examination by the opposing party. Upon the report being made, notice thereof shall forthwith be given by the Secretary to the party against whom the verdict is rendered, and he shall have two weeks in which to file his exceptions; if no exceptions are filed within two weeks, the Lodge shall proceed to pronounce its judgment and decision. An appeal from the judgment of the Lodge may be taken at any time within two weeks thereafter to the Grand Lodge on questions of law, of fact, or both, and if no such appeal is taken, the judgment of the Lodge is final. When a Bill of Exceptions to the report of the committee is filed, as above provided, the Lodge may determine upon its merits, and either change, modify or sustain the report of the committee, or refer the same back to the same, or another committee, or order a new investigation. If the Lodge shall deem the exceptions not well taken, it shall proceed to pronounce its judgment and decision. Each witness, at the conclusion of his testimony, and before other proceedings in the case are had, shall have his testimony, as taken down by the committee, read over to him, and shall make such corrections thereof as he may deem proper, and shall thereupon sign each page of said testimony. The brother has the affirmative of the issue ; and the committees appointed under this section shall be appointed and governed by the rules applicable to committees upon trials under charges.

SFC. 6 This Constitution and all laws, rules and regulations providing for the granting of sick, funeral and other benefits, or of any aid, relief, assistance, allowance, expenses, or money to any member, wife, widow, orphan, or any person whatever, or providing for the payment to the Lodge of dues, assessments and demands by a member, are not intended and shall not be construed to create the relation of debtor and creditor, nor to create legal rights, liabilities nor responsibilities, nor any legal contracted relation, nor confer any right to enforce the granting or payment of the same by resort to courts of law ; on the contrary, all questions, whether of law or fact, relative to the granting, payment or refusal of the same, relate to moral duties or obligations, and not to legal ones, and appertain to the sole jurisdiction of this Lodge and the authorities of this Order, and their decisions in the premises shall be binding, conclusive, and final upon all members, wives, widows, orphans or persons. Every person by becoming or continuing a member of this Lodge consents to and agrees to abide by all the laws and decisions of this Lodge and of the authorities of the Order.

SEC. 7. The Constitution, Laws and Decisions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and the Constitution, Laws and Decisions of the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of California, are laws of this Lodge, and all persons, by becoming or continuing members of this Lodge, consent to, and agree to abide by the same.

SEC. 8. No benefits shall be paid for any injury or disability received in the commission of a crime or an immoral act, nor for any sickness or disability arising from any criminal or immoral acts, conduct, causes or considerations, nor in cases where the same contribute thereto. No benefit or allowance shall be paid to any widow of an Odd Fellow except while she maintains a good moral character in fact, and in case a Lodge neglects or refuses to grant the same on account of any immoral act or conduct, or otherwise, she may demand within four weeks thereafter the appointment of a committee, as provided in Section 5 of this Article, and said Section shall, in all matters, including manner and time of appeal, be applicable thereto. In cases where the Lodge refuses or neglects to pay any benefit or relief, or allowance, which our laws provide shall be paid, the person may, within four weeks thereafter, likewise demand a committee, as provided in said Section 5, and the Section shall likewise, in all matters, including the time and manner of appeal, be applicable thereto.

PENALTIES AND TRIALS.

SECTION 1.—Clause 1., Any member neglecting or refusing to make payment of his dues or demands against him to the Lodge, according to its By-Laws, for the space of eleven months, shall be notified by the Lodge, which notice shall be sent to his last given address, of the state of his account; if his account still remains unsettled, the fact of his dues and demands against him being so in arrears and unpaid shall be announced in open Lodge at the last two regular meetings previous to the time he would be twelve months in arrears, and if his account still remains unsettled, he shall, when he is twelve months in arrears, be suspended from membership and so declared by the Noble Grand, unless otherwise determined by vote of the Lodge; provided, that no person shall be suspended under this section while charges are pending against him, and provided that a member may, prior to suspension, pay a sufficient portion of the amount due to avoid suspension.

Clause 2. Any member suspended from membership for non-payment of dues may be reinstated in the Lodge from which he was suspended within one year thereafter, by paying the amount of one year's dues and by receiving a vote of two-thirds of the members present—a motion to that effect having been laid over one week ; but after one year, he may be reinstated upon the payment of the fee charged for an initiate of the same age, as provided by the By-Laws, or such lesser sum as may be fixed by the By-Laws of the Lodge to which such application is made ; provided, such sum be not less than the amount of one year's dues of said Lodge ; and he shall petition the Lodge, in writing, to be reinstated, which shall be disposed of, in all respects, as provided for in Article III, Section 1, for petitions for membership by initiation.

Clause 3. A member suspended from membership for non-payment of dues, and who makes application for reinstatement and for a withdrawal card for the purpose of uniting with another Lodge in this jurisdiction, may be reinstated and granted a final card at any time within five years from the date of suspension, upon the payment of one year's dues and the usual price of a card.

Clause 4. A member, after being suspended in this jurisdiction for non-payment of dues for the space of five years, wishing to join a Lodge in this jurisdiction, shall be entitled to receive, and the Lodge shall grant him, upon proper application, a dismissal certificate, upon the receipt of one dollar.

Clause 5. A member suspended from membership in this jurisdiction for non-payment of dues, wishing to regain membership in another jurisdiction, shall, upon proper application, be entitled to receive from the Lodge from which he was so suspended a dismissal certificate, upon the payment to said Lodge of one dollar.

Clause 6. In all cases, when a member has been suspended for non-payment of dues, and his Lodge has refused to reinstate him, he shall, upon proper application, be entitled to receive, and the Lodge shall grant a dismissal certificate, upon the receipt therefor of one dollar.

Clause 7. Dismissal certificates may be received from the holders thereof, on application for membership in Subordinate Lodges, in the same manner and with the same effect as withdrawal cards; and applications made on such certificates shall be received and acted on in like manner as upon withdrawal cards. But the holders of such certificates shall in no case be allowed to visit thereon.

Clause 8. The certificates named in this section shall be only those provided by the Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

SEC. 2. Any member who shall violate any of the principles of the Order, or offend against the Constitution, By-Laws or Rules of Order of this Lodge, or the penal laws of the land, shall be fined, reprimanded, suspended or expelled, as the By-Laws may direct or the Lodge determine.

SEC. 3. Every member shall be entitled to a fair trial for any offense involving reprimand, suspension or expulsion. No member shall be put upon trial unless charges duly specifying the offense, so as fully to apprise him of the nature thereof, and to enable him to prepare for his defense, shall be submitted to the Lodge, in writing, and signed by a member of a Lodge within this jurisdiction, and a copy thereof, under seal of the Lodge, be served upon him.

SEC 4. Such charges shall be referred to a committee of five members, who shall, without unnecessary delay, summon the parties and try the case. They shall keep full minutes of the evidence and of their proceedings, and report the same to the Lodge, with their verdict. If a witness be a member of the Order, he shall give his evidence on the honor of an Odd Fellow; if he be not a member, then on oath or affirmation, and the proceedings must state that such obligation or oath was administered. No testimony shall be taken without notice or opportunity for cross examination by the opposing party. Upon the report being made, notice thereof shall forthwith be given, by the Secretary, to the party against whom the verdict is rendered, and he shall have two weeks in which to file his exceptions. If no exceptions are filed within two weeks, the Lodge shall proceed to pronounce judgment upon the verdict, and affix the penalty. An appeal from the judgment of the Lodge may be taken at any time within two weeks thereafter, to the Grand Lodge ; and if no such appeal is taken, the judgment of the Lodge shall be final. When a bill of exceptions to the report of the committee is filed, as above provided, the Lodge may determine upon its merits, and either sustain the report of the committee, or refer the same back to the same or another committee, or grant a new trial. If the Lodge deems the exceptions not well taken, it shall proceed to pronounce its judgment and affix the penalty.

SEC. 5. If the accused refuse or neglect to stand trial when duly summoned, the committee shall report him guilty of contempt of the Lodge, which report shall be conclusive, and the punishment shall be expulsion.

SEC. 6. If a specific penalty for an offense be provided in the Constitution or By-Laws, the Noble Grand shall enforce it. If none be so provided, the Lodge shall decide by paper ballot whether the penalty shall be expulsion, suspension or reprimand and fine. During the ballot, the accused brother shall withdraw from the Lodge room. If upon the first ballot it shall appear that two-thirds of the ballots are cast for expulsion, such shall be the penalty. If two-thirds of the ballots are not cast for expulsion, then the Lodge shall proceed to ballot for suspension ; and if two-thirds of the ballots are cast for suspension, suspension shall be the penalty, and the Lodge shall proceed to fix the duration of such suspension, which shall not exceed two years. If neither expulsion or suspension is determined as the penalty, as above provided, then the penalty shall either be reprimand, fine, or both; if fine is determined upon, then the Lodge shall fix the amount, not exceeding ten dollars; if reprimand is decided upon, then the accused shall be reprimanded in open Lodge by the acting Noble Grand. No ballot held under this section shall be reconsidered. All fines imposed under this section shall be charged to his account, and considered in determining his standing in the Lodge, as dues, and when the fine thus imposed, added to his dues, brings him under the penalty of Section 1 of this Article, he shall be notified, and allowed the usual time to make payment; and if he ceases to be a member, he shall, prior to reinstatement, pay the whole amount of such fines and dues.

PRAYERS.

OPENING PRAYER.

Almighty and most merciful God ! we adore Thee as the Creator of all worlds, and the righteous Governor of all beings, upon whom we are all dependent for life and all its blessings, and without whose favor no human enterprise can permanently prosper. Lift upon us, we pray Thee, O Lord, the light of Thy countenance, and bless us while we are together this evening. May all things be done in the spirit of charity and brotherly kindness, and our labors of love be blessed to the promotion of the best interests of our beloved Order. Hear us, O God, in behalf of the stranger, the sick, the afflicted, the widow and the orphan, and bless them as Thou seest they may need. Keep us ever in Thy fear and wisdom, and save us all with an everlasting salvation ; and to Thy great name be all the glory, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

CLOSING PRAYER.

We bless Thee, O Lord, that we have been permitted to enjoy this, another Lodge meeting. Pardon what Thou hast seen amiss in us ; and now, as we are about to depart and separate, let Thy blessing be with us, and with all our brethren throughout the Globe. May brotherly love prevail, and every moral and social virtue adorn our lives, while members of this Lodge below ; and at last may we be admitted to the joys of a better world ; and to Thee shall be all the praise and glory, for ever and ever. Amen.
